

Community Gardening with The Salvation Army

The community garden at The Salvation Army's Southlands Community Church is available to anyone who, regardless of skill level, lives in the Fairfield Park/Richmond West/Waverley Heights neighbourhoods. Each plot is free and priority is given to community members who don't have a yard and those who have volunteered their time in the garden in the past.

Residents of the neighbourhoods can apply to grow their own garden vegetables in one of our community garden plots located at Southlands Community Church at 85 Keslar Road. This garden has 20 individual raised bed plots.

We are grateful to the Fort Garry Community Network and their financial grant from Healthy Together Now, and to Turf Boss for the construction of the garden.

Please fill out the application form on the opposite side and submit it to info@southlandschurch.com or in person at 85 Keslar Road.

Garden plots will be assigned on a first come, first served basis.
